Yorktown, VA - Sheriff J.D. “Danny” Diggs today, released the following statement regarding Virginia Senate Democrats refusal to lower the Gas Tax:

“Working Virginia families for too long have suffered under the weight of rising gas prices. Now, when presented with an opportunity to offer relief to the working people of Virginia, Senate Democrats turned their backs on them. We cannot continue to elect Senators that willfully ignore the needs of Virginians. When I am elected Senator, I will work with Governor Youngkin to provide real relief for Virginia families.”
